Global investors keen on cities like Mysuru: CM

Bengaluru, Nov. 3 (Agencies)- While Bengaluru is the preferred destination for global investors, most of the investors have shown interest for investment beyond Bengaluru, and new industries will now come up in Mysuru, Ramanagara, Hubballi-Dharwad, Ballari and Kalaburagi, said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Accountability needs to be fixed for the tragic loss of over 150 lives following the collapse of a century-old suspension bridge over the Machchhu river in Gujarat's Morbi. The local Police have filed an FIR and detained people in connection with the incident. Based on what's been admitted by local municipal officials, it's apparent that there was a gross administrative failure as the bridge was thrown open to pedestrians without a formal fitness clearance after being closed for months to carry out repairs.

The accident at Morbi is a symptom of a crisis at the heart of India's urban governance. Across the country, there are a series of fatalities because of the poor state of urban institutions that oversee governance. The problem begins with a dispute over the size of the urban population, which influences the political importance and attendant flow of resources. Even as accountability is fixed for the tragedy at Morbi, State Governments need to begin the process of empowering elected leadership of urban local bodies. The change will come when voters demand accountability from empowered urban bodies, not State Governments with conflicts of interest.

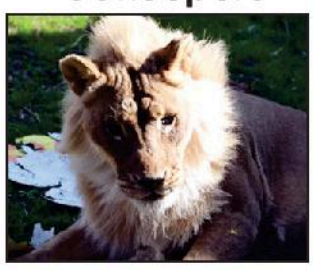
Lioness grows mane, baffles zookeepers



Kansas: An 18-year-old lioness has baffled staff at a zoo in Kansas after growing an "awkward teenage mane" after the pride's last male lion passed away.

Looking at Zuri, one would think she was a young lion growing his mane for the first time, but she is actually an 18-year-old female. That makes the mane around her neck pretty unusual, with only a handful of similar cases reported in the past. The lioness reportedly started growing a mane soon after the last male lion at Topeka Zoo in Kansas passed away in October, 2020. Although zookeepers don't believe there is any connection between the lack of a male lion and Zuri's mane, they do admit that the lioness has gotten feistier since growing the new fur, growling, snarling, and roaring more often than before.

"She feels like she needs to protect her pride, so her testosterone increases," said Zuri's curator, Shanna Simpson.

Startup unveils world's fastest walking shoes

Pittsburgh: A Pittsburgh-based robotics and engineering startup recently unveiled Moonwalkers, a pair of battery-powered shoes that can boost walk by up to 250%.

Moonwalkers look like a pair of futuristic rollerskates, but there is actually a lot more to them than that. Powered by a state-of-the-art brushless DC motor, this ingenious contraption can be attached to a wide variety of footwear to increase your walking speed up to a reported 7mph/11kph. For comparison, humans' average walking speed ranges from 2.5 to 4 mph. The world's fastest shoes is being compared to that of walking on a 'moving walkway' in an airport.

Maintenance of roads:

Comprehensive plan required

Sir,

I have been observing that Star of Mysore has become a big platform for accommodating the grievances on bad roads across our city. Even I have written a few letters in this column on some of the bad roads but authorities don't seem to bother.

I believe that the local Government (MCC) should form a committee of prominent citizens including SMEs (Subject Matter Experts) and Government authorities who understand and have concern about the problems being faced by the people, so that they make a list of bad roads in the MCC limits.

If bad roads are identified, then the committee can allocate funds to repair the most critical roads from each locality. Afterwards depending on the availability of funds, the committee can identify interior roads for repair from each locality.

The most important job of the committee is to inspect the roads after completion for meeting its specified quality. If the quality is not met, then the committee should have power to reject the work executed by the contractor.

Likewise, the committee can also invite suggestions on how to further improve the process from the general public.

Collect taxes from areas having civic amenities: MLA Nagendra

Mysuru, Nov. 3 (SBD&DM)- Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra has asked the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) officials to collect tax from slum cleared areas where the MCC has provided civic amenities and other infrastructure.

He was addressing the Ashraya Samiti meeting of Chamaraja Assembly segment at the MCC's old Council Hall here on Wednesday.

Expressing displeasure that tax was not being collected in some slum cleared areas where the MCC has provided all civic amenities, Nagendra said that collection of a minimum tax from residents of these areas will not only enhance the revenues of the MCC, but also help in maintenance and improvement of the facilities.

Noting that the Karnataka Slum Clearance Board is yet to hand over 894 houses built by it in different areas to the MCC, the MLA said that there may be more number of such houses, which the authorities have to find out. The collection of tax from the residents of these houses is certainly helpful to the MCC to ensure that the amenities are in order, he added.

Continuing, Nagendra said that civic amenities works were taken up at Ambedkar Gnanaloka in Metagalli at a cost of Rs. 4.10 crore out of Government grants, Nagendra said that the MCC had failed to bring this locality under its purview though the civic body has been maintaining it for years. He directed the officials to bring these areas under the purview of the MCC without any further delay as any laxity or apathy would cost the MCC revenue earnings.

Referring to the issue concerning a Government land coming under Hebbal Survey No. 201 and located close to a Kalyana Mantap along the Ring Road, Nagendra instructed the officials to carry out a joint inspection and survey of 1 acre and 8 guntas of land where unauthorised constructions have come up. The MLA also asked the officials to distribute title deeds to all original beneficiaries of Ashraya houses in Hebbal. He further directed the officials to carry out an inspection of the spot where 7 houses are said to have illegally come up on Government land near the Swimming pool in Saraswathipuram.

Speaking about distribution of houses, Nagendra said that he has appealed the State's Housing Minister V. Somanna to construct 3,000 houses to the shelterless residents of Chamaraja Constituency.

Maintaining that he has also sought the Minister to allot some of the houses sanctioned under various Government housing schemes to Chamaraja Constituency as well, he said that this process will commence soon after Cabinet approval.

MCC Additional Commissioner Roopa, Deputy Commissioner Savitha and other officials from Slum Board, Survey Department, Ashraya Samiti, MCC and others were present.

Couple obtains Rs. 4 crore loan after submitting fake documents

Mysuru, Nov. 3- Devaraja Police have registered a case against a couple and also against the person who had given surety after the couple obtained a loan of Rs. 4 crore from a Co-operative Bank by submitting fake documents.

The couple, who have cheated the bank, is L.B. Harish, a contractor and Jyothi, an interior designer and residents of Jayanagar in city. A case has also been registered against M.C. Baluprakash, a resident of Chamarajapuram, who had given surety to the couple.

Details: Harish and Jyothi, who approached Tumkur Grain Merchants Co-operative Bank on K.V. Road in city on Apr. 28, 2017, applied for a loan of Rs. 4 crore after submitting documents pertaining to a commercial complex at Malavalli Town and a site. The Bank's administrative board approved the loan on May 16, 2017 and released the loan amount.

After obtaining the loan, the couple nor the person who had given surety failed to repay the loan following which the Bank authorities got the documents checked and came to know that they were fake, following which Bank staff Namitha lodged a complaint with Devaraja Police.

Failing to register site after receiving Rs. 4.5 lakh

Case registered against hotelier

Mysuru, Nov. 3- Devaraja Police have registered a case against C. Nagaraju alias Amaravathi Nagaraj, proprietor of Amaravathi Hotel in Mandya for failing to register the site after receiving Rs. 4.5 lakh from the buyer.

Details: A.G. Anilkumar, an ex-serviceman and a resident of Vijayanagar 4th Stage, who wanted to buy a site, met Amaravathi Nagaraj through one H.N. Satish, proprietor of Spykar, a readymade garments showroom on D. Devaraj Urs Road in city and held talks with Nagaraj.

In his complaint Anilkumar has stated that during the talks, Nagaraj fixed the price for Site No. 25, measuring 30X40 at Amaravathi Enclave located in Survey No. 114/1 and 114/2 in Beerihundi village limits of Mellahalli in Mysuru taluk for Rs. 6.75 lakh and Nagaraj had received Rs. 4.5 lakh as advance for the site.

On Dec. 29, 2020, Amaravathi Nagaraj called Anilkumar to the Mysuru East Sub Registrar's Office to register the site in Anilkumar's name. But instead of registering the site, Nagaraj told Anilkumar that as the khata of Amaravathi Enclave is jointly held by his wife Rekha, she could not come today and told Anilkumar that he would bring his wife tomorrow (Dec. 30, 2020) and get the registration done.

As Amaravathi Nagaraj did not get the site registered, Anilkumar went to Amaravathi Hotel on Sept. 17, 2022 and met Nagaraj, who threatened Anilkumar with life and sent him away, the complaint further stated.

Left with no other option, Anilkumar lodged a complaint against Amaravathi Nagaraj with Devaraja Police. Based on the complaint, Devaraja Police, who have registered a case under IPC section 406, 420 and 506, are investigating.

Miscreants cheat man of Rs. 1 lakh on the pretext of giving Saudi currencies

Mysuru, Nov. 3- Miscreants have allegedly cheated a 48-year-old man of Rs. 1 lakh on the pretext of giving Saudi Arabia currencies at a lesser price.

The man, who has been cheated is Asgar Pasha, a resident of Mohammed Sait Block in Lashkar Mohalla here.

On Oct. 16, Asgar, went to a market to purchase groceries where a person, who was selling handkerchiefs introduced himself as Shakeel Sait to Asgar and told him that he had currencies of Saudi Arabia, which he was willing to give for a lesser price, to which Asgar replied positively.

Later, Shakeel called Asgar over the phone and told him that he would give the currencies if he (Asgar) comes with Rs. 1 lakh cash. Believing him, Asgar along with the cash, took his wife Asma Begum along with him near Santhemala, as told by Shakeel.

On reaching the spot, Asgar made his wife sit near a shop and saw that Shakeel had come with another person. They then took Asgar near Hootagalli, took Rs. 1 lakh cash and gave a bag to Asgar telling him to open it when he reaches home and left the spot.

Asgar, who came to the place where he had left his wife, opened the bag only to see newspapers in it and lodged a complaint. Vijayanagar Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

South's first Vande Bharat Express slowest in India

▶ Speed restrictions because of the many gradients and curves, clarify officers

▶ Gap between Shatabdi Express and Vande Bharat Express too short, say commuters

Mysuru, Nov. 3 (BCT)- The Vande Bharat Express that has a maximum speed of 160-180 kilometres per hour will only run at a speed of 75.60 to 77.53 km per hour on the Mysuru-Chennai route via Bengaluru, only a wee bit faster than the Shatabdi Express that is running at present between the three cities. While the existing Shatabdi Express between Mysuru and Chennai takes over 7 hours 15 minutes to commute between the two cities via Bengaluru, the brand-new Vande Bharat Express, a semi-high-speed train, takes 6 hours 40 minutes to cover the same distance, a difference of 35 minutes.

"It is almost the same without much difference. Going by the hype created around the Vande Bharat Express and its speed, it should have cut down the travel time further. The train has a maximum speed of 160-180 kilometres per hour. Then I wonder why the train is running at an average speed of 75.60 km per hour to 77.53 km per hour," questioned businessman Rajeev, who is a regular commuter between the two cities.

Sources from the South Western Railways, however, told Star of Mysore that there are many restrictions on speed due to various reasons and as such, South India's first Vande Bharat Express will be the slowest in the country.

"There are speed restrictions because of the gradients and curves and they are a real challenge to enhance the speed levels at the 165 km per hour range. Running at a high speed is risky and will endanger the safety of the passengers and a conscious decision has been taken to restrict the speed of Vande Bharat Express from 75.60 to 77.53 km per hour," an officer said on condition of anonymity.

The speed of New Delhi to Varanasi Vande Bharat Express is 95 km per hour, New Delhi to Shri Mata Vaishno Devi Katra in Jammu & Kashmir is 82 km per hour, Mumbai Central to Gandhinagar is 84 km per hour and the Vande Bharat Express speed between New Delhi and Amb Andaura in Himachal Pradesh is 79 km per hour.

Though certain engineering works can be taken up for the locomotives to negotiate these curves without getting toppled at high speeds, straightening all the curves is not financially feasible as it entails acquiring extra land, rehabilitating people and rebuilding bridges and level crossings at different points. "This needs a huge investment of hundreds of crores of rupees and time," the officer added.

GAP TOO SHORT, SAY COMMUTERS

Also, many commuters have questioned the too short gap between Vande Bharat Express and Shatabdi Express. While the Vande Bharat Express will leave Chennai at 5.50 am, the Shatabdi Express leaves Chennai at 6 am.

"Every morning we already have a Shatabdi from Bengaluru and we can reach Mysuru by 1 pm. Now Vande Bharat Express also runs in the same schedule with a short gap and reaches Mysuru at 12.30 pm. This would have been a big benefit if the Vande Bharat Express would have started late in the afternoon or early evening. What is the use of two high-speed trains that run at the same time and return also almost at the same time," questioned Suraj Venugopalrao in Star of Mysore Facebook page.

"Did not understand the schedule. Why do we have two trains starting from Chennai in the morning? One could have started from Mysuru and other from Chennai," said Neeraj Vyas.

"It would be better if they work on rescheduling either Shatabdi Express or Vande Bharat Express. They can run these superfast premium trains one in the morning and one in the evening. Running in a gap of 30 minutes to one hour to the same destination makes no sense," said Adithya Jagannath.

TOTAL TIME TAKEN

The Chennai Central-Bengaluru-Mysuru Vande Bharat Express' travel time will be 6 hours and 40 minutes while the Mysuru-Bengaluru-Chennai Vande Bharat Express will take only 6 hours and 30 minutes.

ADJUSTMENTS WILL BE MADE

"Most of the track between Bengaluru and Chennai are straight and as such, the Vande Bharat Express will travel faster. However, there are many steep curves between Mysuru and Bengaluru and this will curtail the speed. The train is yet to start and the timings that have been decided now are that of the initial stages. Once the actual operations start, the timings, time table, stoppages will be decided after matching with other trains."

Deepavali escapade to Goa – 3

Narakasura comes alive amidst vestiges of Portuguese rule

I have heard, read and seen on TV Ramlila being played during Dasara as part of the festival celebration. In Delhi there is the famous Ramlila Maidan where Ramlila is held annually as a public celebration attended by VIPs and the public at large.

The most awaited part of the proceedings is the Ravan Dahan, killing of Ravan, the demon King of Lanka, by setting fire to his effigy loaded with firecrackers.

To my utter surprise, a similar celebration of Deepavali festival was witnessed by me in Goa. It was a surprise to me because though I have visited Goa in the past a few times, I never went there during Deepavali and as such there was no occasion to witness the way Goans celebrate Deepavali. As we drove around we could see at every small town or village, huge, giant-sized effigies of the mythical demon Narakasura, some call him Mahishasura, being readied for the inevitable fiery killing of the demon on Naraka Chaturdashi day, nay at dawn, amidst lot of fireworks. It symbolises Lord Krishna killing the demon, just as Ramlila symbolises Lord Rama killing Ravan. In essence, it symbolises victory of good over evil.

> Looking at the innumerable macabre, horrific effigies of Narakasuras and the way locals and tourists are attracted to them, I thought whether we in Mysuru could replicate them as part of our Dasara — Navarathri festival. Some food for (tourism) thought.

Goan people seem to be more creative than those who work on Ravan's effigies in the North. Each effigy of Narakasura is so different in its size, colour, physic, weird facial expression with fang-like teeth, holding lethal weapons and made of plaster of paris. (see some photos that I clicked).

If some are stationary, some are mounted on vehicles ready for the procession. Real scary and ghoulish creatures come from the netherworld!

I was awestruck, staring at them giving a pause to the moving car. Suddenly a thought crossed my mind — if Rama killing Ravan could be symbolically played at Ramlila Maidan in Delhi, if Krishna killing Narakasura could be symbolically played in Goa in a fiery manner, why not Chamundeshwari (Goddess Durga) killing Mahishasura symbolically be played in Mysuru? It is entertainment for the people, work for the artists and commerce for businessmen. Any takers?

For me this was in sharp contrast to the famous Goan Carnival that attracted people from other parts of the country also. Why not? Where there is fun, frolic, Fenny, wine, cake, pork vindaloo, music, dance, gals and guys, the carnival is a powerful magnate. However, Deepavali seemed to be more of local interest. Goa is a place for holiday hunters with multiple attractions where one is never starved for entertainment. There are many options to choose from. Like in Las Vegas, though in a very small scale, including casinos.

TAILPIECE: According to one version of the mythology Durga kills Mahishasura and Rama kills Ravan during Navarathri and Dasara. If so, why not have Durgalila in Mysuru, like Ramlila, asks a wag. Selected Narakasura effigies could follow the Dasara procession at the tail end to be burnt down at Bannimantap presenting a grand, fiery spectacle to the audience. Howzatt?

Global investors

The State has made achievements in the manufacturing sector, while it is also in the forefront in the fields of electronics, mechanical, energy, iron and steel sectors, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said.

"We have been in the forefront in IT/BT for the last two decades, which is why Bengaluru is called the Silicon Valley. The contribution of Karnataka to IT/BT exports is 40 percent and the maximum number of jobs in this field is created here," Bommai said.

"Invest Karnataka will grab the attention of the whole world. Global investment will lay a strong foundation for the development of Karnataka in the next five years," the Chief Minister said, as he termed the global investors' meet as an important event where technocrats, young engineers, IT/BT experts, startups, educational institutions and global and domestic investors will be welcomed.

"We are expecting more than Rs. 5 lakh crore investment and the State's high-level committee has already given clearance for investment worth over Rs. 2.8 lakh crore. This is our commitment to the investors and we are going to distribute the certificates of investment. We will sign agreements with the new investors and give all the required clearances in the next few days. Karnataka is taking a big leap in the industrial sector," he added.

Proposals worth Rs. 8 lakh crore

Meanwhile, Large and Medium Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani said that the State received investment proposals worth nearly Rs. 8 lakh crore on the first day and is expected to go beyond Government's expectation by the end of the three-day event.

Elated over the overwhelming response that GIM received on the inaugural day, Nirani added that the event was a grand success. "We are pleased that the GIM attracted 100 percent attendance and overwhelming response from all the stakeholders."

"We have received investments worth nearly Rs. 8 lakh crore so far and we are expecting more by Nov. 4," the Minister said adding, "These investments are expected to create more than five lakh jobs in the State. The Chief Minister will announce the exact number of investments on the concluding day. We will release a booklet containing the full details of investments, including the names of companies, places and the number of jobs that are going to be created."

Children should be taught based on their grasping power: Prof. M. Krishnegowda

Mysuru, Nov. 3 (PM&DM)- Opining that children should be taught based on their grasping power and ability, noted writer and humorist Prof. M. Krishnegowda stressed on the need for teachers and educators to have an understanding of their (children) learning capabilities.

He was speaking at the programme organised for releasing the study book for TET (Teachers Eligibility Test) exam at Jnanabuthi in Lakshmipuram Government High School and PU College premises on JLB Road here recently.

Observing that one must have education in order to lead life and not for getting a job or earning money, Prof. Krishnegowda said that teachers should have commitment and dedication in their work and must maintain good contact with their students.

Maintaining that teachers can have complete satisfaction of their job only if they get deep-rooted in their profession, he said that teachers should have a good understanding of the grasping powers and learning capabilities of their students.

Noting that our Universities should focus more on life principles, he said that professional education might bring jobs and money. But education with principles, will help in inspiring one to take up Samskara filled activities and pro-social works, he argued.

Continuing, Prof. Krishnegowda, who bagged the prestigious Kannada Rajyotsava award this year, said that he himself is a living example on how one can achieve anything by Kannada.

Asserting that he had become an orator, writer and humorist because of Kannada, Prof. Krishnegowda contended that Kannada was everything to him. Stating that it was Kannada which introduced him to the world, he reiterated that he was an example for what all Kannada can give to a person.

KSOU Acting Vice-Chancellor Dr. A. Khader Pasha, who spoke after releasing the study book, said that coaching classes play a keyrole in the success of candidates appearing for competitive exams conducted by UPSC, KPSC and other Government agencies. He also explained the salient features of National Education Policy-2020 for the benefit of candidates.

Senior KAS Officer Asad R. Shariff, who also heads Jnanabuthi competitive exams coaching section, too spoke.

Resource persons Dr. C.N. Sunitha, Prof. Honnaiah, Prof. Vijayaprakash, Nelwin Praveenkumar, S.N. Lingaraju, Dr. Umesh Bevinahalli, Halappa H. Gowda, Dr. Palaniswamy Moodaguru, Dr. E. Shivaprasad, K.P. Ganesh, K.Y. Nagendra and C.K. Kiran Koushik, Jnanabuthi General Secretary Jainahalli Satyanarayanagowda and others were present.

The term of the 182-member Gujarat Assembly ends on Feb. 18 next year. Battle for Gujarat has intensified with BJP and AAP emerging as the top two players. In 2017, BJP won 99 of the 182 seats while 77 seats were with Congress. The ruling party is looking to secure its sixth straight term in the home State of PM Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah.

Citing the convention followed in 2017, the Poll Panel had not announced the Gujarat election schedule when it came out with Himachal Pradesh poll dates last month.

Parties must explain why they chose candidate with criminal background, said Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Rajiv Kumar while announcing the dates. Through Know Your Candidate App, voters will be informed about all the details, including criminal history and funds, of all the candidates.

The CEC said that if voters witness any untoward activities, like use of muscle power or money power, they can use the cVIGIL application to raise a complaint from the booth itself.

Since 2017, there has been a 100 percent increase in transgender voters in Gujarat. There are 1,417 third-gender voters in the State, Kumar added. We're also trying to have a reach in certain red-light areas, he says.

There will be 51,792 polling stations and all basic facilities will be provided at all the polling stations. "No polling station will be on the second floor. In 1,274 polling stations, only women representatives, women police will greet the voters," the CEC said.

Total number of electors on the voter rolls stand at 4,91,17,308 including 4,90,89,765 general electors and 27,943 service voters. 3,24,420 new voters have been added after having attained the age of 18 between Jan. 1 and Oct. 1, the CEC informed.

Online fraud: Two persons cheated

On Sept. 22, Shyla received a message on her WhatsApp from an international number and she called the number and questioned how the person got her number. The person on the other end told her that he got it from the internet and then introduced himself as Michael Redakin, a resident of the UK, who was working as a contractor.

The acquaintance grew and the person then took Shyla's address, told her that he would be sending a gold-and-diamond-studded watch and other costly gifts to her and also sent photos of the gifts which were wrapped and ready to be sent.

On Oct. 10, Shyla received a call from Mob: 92330-48349 and the caller told her that he was calling from Delhi Airport and told her to get her gift items released by paying GST and other fees. In all, from Oct. 10 to 12, the person got a total of Rs. 5,56,600 transferred from Shyla's bank account. As she did not receive the gifts, Shyla lodged a Police case. Both the cases have been registered at Mysuru's CEN Police Station.

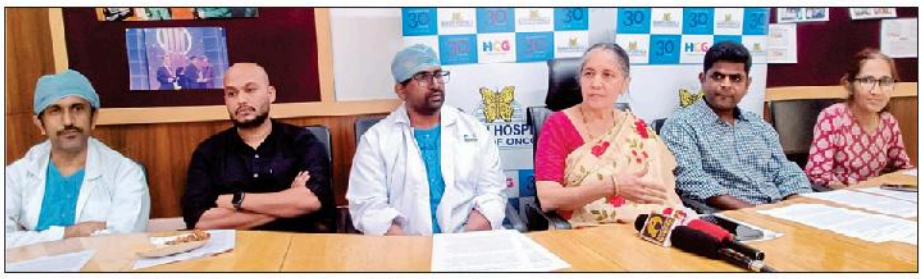
'Breast conservative surgery is a better alternative to radical surgery'



Senior Radiation Oncologist and Medical Superintendent of Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology Dr. Y.S. Madhavi (third from right) addressing media persons at the Hospital on Monday as (from left) Surgical Oncologist Dr. Vijay Kumar, Radiation Oncologist Dr. Vinay Kumar, Surgical Oncologist Dr. Raxith Sringeri, Medical Oncologist Dr. Abhilash and Onco Pathologist Dr. Kavitha look on.

Mysuru, Nov. 3 (KS)- An innovative Breast Conservative Surgery (BCS) is helping patients lead better lives, said Senior Radiation Oncologist and Medical Superintendent of Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology Dr. Y.S. Madhavi.

Addressing a press meet at the Hospital on Monday, Dr. Y.S. Madhavi said "Breast conservative surgery technique is less invasive and conserves most of the natural breast tissue. Essentially what is done is the patient's own extra tissue, which is always present on the chest wall, is taken to fill the hollow created in the breast after a large tumour is removed. Surgical oncologists at Bharath Cancer Hospital, who were performing over hundreds of oncoplastic surgeries per year, are continuing to create awareness regarding breast conservative surgery."

Dr. Raxith Sringeri, Consultant Surgical Oncologist, Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology, said: "Breast cancer prevalence has been rising steadily in India and is presently the most common cancer among females. Of the cases being reported, at least 14 percent are being detected at a late stage and approximately 50 percent are "locally advanced" at diagnosis. Mastectomy or breast removal is still performed widely in patients in India.

However, the procedure has been associated with several long-term side effects such as body asymmetry, postural instability, depression, loss of self-esteem and poor quality of life. Globally, breast conservative surgery is now the preferred procedure for breast cancer treatment and surgical oncologist at HCG Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology are working towards ensuring that oncoplastic conservative breast surgery gets a firm footing in the region of Mysuru as well."

"Breast conservation has become increasingly accepted worldwide as the surgical management of breast cancer in clinical practice. Cancer care in India is also evolving tremendously with many cancer treatment centres following evidence-based practice hence the rates of breast conservation are expected to increase. Between January 2021 and August 2022, more than 400 patients underwent breast cancer surgery at our centre. All Early Breast Cancers (EBC) were offered BCS. For Large Operable Breast Cancer (LOBC) and Locally Advanced Breast Cancer (LABC), Neoadjuvant Chemotherapy (NACT) followed by BCS was offered to these patients who wish to conserve their breast," added Dr. Raxith.

Dr. M. Vijay Kumar, Consultant Surgical Oncologist, Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology, said: "Apart from addressing aesthetic and safety concerns, there is also a reduced rate of depression among patients opting for oncoplastic surgery. Our patients are happier, not only with the way their breasts look but also with the fact that there are no complications and the recovery time is short."

He also mentioned that the concept of removing the entire breast for breast cancer is changing, with advanced surgical options with precise radiotherapy available at Bharath Cancer Hospital.

Breast conservative surgery is reasonable and standard option for many breast cancer patients. Breast cancer clinic now available every day at Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology, Mysuru.

Free screening and discount on mammography extended till November end

As part of month-long breast cancer awareness programme, Bharath Hospital and Institute of Oncology conducted various awareness programmes including camp at prominent parks across the city, free screening test and 50 percent discount on mammography test. Sugarcane farmers' protest enters fourth day

Mysuru, Nov. 3 (PM&SSM)- The overnight protest of Sugarcane farmers entered the fourth day today with protestors banging steel plates and glasses in front of Deputy Commissioner's (DC) office and raising slogans against the District Administration and District Minister S.T. Somashekar.

Criticising the delay in fixing Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) for sugarcane by the State Government, sugarcane growers, under the banners of State Sugarcane Growers' Association and Federation of Farmers Organisations, are staging protest in front of the DC Office from Oct. 31.

Stating that the Central Government has fixed the rate of sugarcane at Rs. 3,050 per tonne, the protesting farmers demanded Rs. 3,500 be fixed under the State Advisory Price (SAP). Their other demands included the entire process of sugarcane planting agreement, permission of harvesting sugarcane on the basis of seniority, weight of sugarcane, payment of sugarcane, yield of sugar be computerised, facilitate the registration of farmers though a Mobile App and harvesting and transportation cost be borne by sugar factories.

DC Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who met the protestors, urged them to call-off their overnight protest. Speaking to press persons, the DC said that the District Minister has asked to arrange a meeting regarding the issue on Nov. 8. "If the Minister fails to attend the meeting on that day following PM Modi's visit on Nov. 11 to Bengaluru, I will make sure to fulfil their demands at district-level and inform the higher authorities," he added.

The agitated farmers said that they will continue the protest till their demands are met.

A 'Parake Chaluvali' (Broom protest) was staged yesterday. The farmers raised slogans against Minister S.T. Somashekar for refusing to meet them and accused him for being in favour of the owners of sugar factories.

On Tuesday, the farmers staged a semi-naked protest near the DC Office demanding Minister Somashekar to meet them when he visited the city on Nov. 1. But the Minister left the city without meeting the farmers.

Association District President P. Somashekar, General Secretary Baradanapura Nagaraju, Office-bearers Attali Devaraju and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Defile

Pronunciation: dih-FYLE.
Meaning: Defile means "to make (something) dirty." It can also mean "to take away or ruin the purity, honour, or goodness of (something or someone important)."
Origin: The verb defile (unrelated to this verb defile or its related noun) has a number of uses that are all variations on the idea of making something unclean or impure. These meanings echo the word's Middle English and Anglo-French ancestry, where defilement is connected to figurative and literal trampling. The ultimate Anglo-French root is fuller, or foller, which means "to trample under foot," "to oppress"—or literally, "to full." Full in this case is a technical term: when you full woolen cloth you shrink and thicken it by moistening, heating, and pressing it. Originally, the pressing part was done by trampling it with the feet.
Example: "Now, in an about-face, agency is preparing to rework those regulations, potentially allowing state officials to take a broader array of environmental concerns ... into account when deciding whether to approve major construction that could defile bodies of water."—Dino Grandoni

THE ODD WORD

Deadstock

Farm equipment.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Desperate times call for desperate measures

Meaning: When you say 'Desperate Times Call for Desperate Measures' you mean that actions that might seem extreme under normal circumstances are appropriate during adversity.
Origin: The expression 'desperate times call for desperate measures' is believed to have originated with a saying coined by the ancient Greek physician, Hippocrates. In his work Amorphisms, he wrote: "For extreme diseases, extreme methods of cure, as to restriction, are most suitable."
Example: "I really don't want to break up with Tim, but desperate times call for desperate measures."
